EAST MISSISSIPPI and WEST ALABAMA BUREAU

BY
L. A. Halbert

In the fall of 1882 we packed our wagon and moved from Border Springs to Cobb's Switch and on the 1st of November, 1905, we found our wagon headed back to the land where the people live nine days in a week, where the sun shines brighter, where the air breaths sweeter, where the flowers look lovelier and where the songs of the birds are more enchanting. But we find a great change in the appearance of the old stamping ground and its environments. The log house and barn have faded away and a nice frame cottage, handsomely painted, and respectable barns and out houses have been erected. The old roads have been thoroughly worked and new ones laid out, running in every direction, crossing each other, giving the people access to and quick communication with each other and surrounding country. The wires of the Rye telephone system run out from our little town in every direction bringing neighbors and communities into immediate touch commercially and socially. The comfortable frame school house with modern seats and desks has taken the place of the log hut of 1872 and from an intellectual standpoint there has been a great advancement. The lodges of Masons, Odd Fellows and Woodmen of the World at Caledonia are doing great work in fraternalizing the people. Here friendship and love sway the scepter while faith and charity assert their solidifying influence. With free delivery of the mail at our doors along with all of these we ought to be a happy contented people, but we are not. Why?

In the seventies and eighties when the young people of this section enjoyed themselves as no other people ever did and meetings of every kind were attended in great numbers, there was no odor of whisky on the breath of our young men. Not a gun was to be seen in the pocket of the boys at church or at a social gathering. How is it now? We are told that from Steens to Buahatchie, from Steens to Nashville, from Moore's Bluff to Penn Station, and from Columbus to Artesia that whisky can be bought and is being bought. Now is the time for every good citizen to do his duty. Go before the grand jury and report the offenders.

We often hear the report of a gun on Sunday and where there is an entertainment in the neighborhood at night we can hear the report of the revolvers as our boys are returning home. Boys, this is all wrong. Let whisky and pistols alone. A brave, fearless boy or man does not care for nor does he carry a gun. If you have a pistol get rid of it as you would a snake if you had one in your possession. Now, boys, if you do get into trouble with your whisky and your gun, go to your neighbor and Caledonian O. M. Lawrence. He is your friend and will help you out. He is from among us and we should give him a trial at any rate. Do him like we do our boys and girls who go from our midst to town as clerks. Patronize him. It does me good to give my trade to a worthy young lass and they appreciate your patronage.

Speaking of our Caledonia lawyer reminds me again of the question of good citizenship. Our association committee in their report claimed that a Christian or respectable lawyer should not defend a criminal. The law regards every man as being innocent until proven guilty and unless a client confesses his guilt, his lawyer should so consider him. Then why should he refuse to defend a man charged with crime? Even when convicted in a Justice of the Peace court a criminal is often acquitted on case being appealed to the Circuit court and when convicted in the Circuit court the case is often reversed when appealed to the Supreme court. Under the Mosaic law there were cities of refuge scattered over the country and when a man committed murder he would flee to such a city and if he entered one of these cities before he was arrested his safety was secured. The grand jury is a modern city of refuge. As soon as a crime is committed the guilty and his friends make for the grand jury. It is unlawful to assist a criminal to make his escape and it seems to me that for a man to juggle with a juror in the effort to defeat the finding of an indictment is tantamount to assisting the guilty to escape.

It would be well for the jury to inquire into the "Bird Shoot" and beer parties. If Webster gives a true definition to gambling it is carried on at these "shoots."

Mr. R. W. Dodson, of Border Springs, has sold his home consisting of 130 acres to Mr. Henry Watson of Clay county for the sum of $1,800.00.

Last Friday night Mrs. J. L. Williams, the wife of Esq. Williams, spent the night in the house in which she was born and just 70 years ago that night she first saw the light. Esq. Williams is four years his wife's senior and both of them look 20 years younger than their real age. Mr. Williams makes one of the best magistrates in the county and has served longer in that capacity than any man on record.

Mr. James W. Dodson, of Border Springs, has raised a fine lot of meat this year. He killed one pig that weighed 317 pounds dressed. Mr. J. W. Bailey is feeding a pig to be killed later on that will make a match for that of Mr. Hugh Harris. There is more meat to be killed in this section than ever known and the corn crop was fine. So you see we moved over in good time and the beauty of the case is that the people of this section use no locks on neither smokehouse or crib.

Quite a large attendance at Border Springs Sunday. The church by a unanimous vote elected Rev. W. M. Reese as pastor for the ensuing year. Now, boys, come up all of you who have not paid your tythes and make your preacher and his family feel comfortable.

Mr. P. B. Stanley, of Columbus, attended church at Border Springs Sunday.

Mr. Pervin Smith, of Lamar, Alabama, has purchased a part of Mr. Neil Partain's farm at Border Springs and will soon move his family into our county.

Mr. A. M. Lawrence, a popular young business man, and the accomplished Miss Pearl Thomas, of Caledonia, attended church at Border Springs Sunday.

Buttatchie Lodge, No. 124 I. O. O. F. held quite an interesting meeting last Saturday and adopted a resolution to reinstate all suspended members on the payment of one quarter's dues. Now, brothers, come out next 2nd Saturday and get yourselves in good standing and let us build up the order as it should be. We can run our membership to 150 if every member will try and get a new applicant. Mr. C. E. West, one of the best citizens of Beat 5, is Noble Grand in the Odd Fellows lodge and is Worshipful Master in the Masonic lodge and is making a splendid presiding officer in both orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Halbert of Billups, visited the Johnnies at Woodlawn, Sunday.

Mr. Ward Loftis, of Woodlawn, is to soon lead to the altar the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Del Stephenson of Columbus. The many friends of the young couple join this bureau in wafting congratulations.

Musical entertainments at the homes of Mr. Buck Egger, of New Salem, and Will Stanley, at Border Springs, last night were well attended and much enjoyed by all present.

There is a soap manufactory of laundry soap going on in Caledonia and the manufacturers are sending it broadcast over the country and giving it to the house wives and it is said to be a very fine article.

The friends of Mr. J. K. Strickland throughout the county will regret to learn that he has been partially stricken with paralysis.

Messrs. Morris and Jamieson have opened a photograph gallery in the Russel building in Caledonia and when in our little town call and have the best pictures made you have ever had.

A few days since a family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Delia Egger. All the children including Mr. John Egger of West Point, Mr. Charles Egger, wife and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cash were present. The reunion was a happy one.

Mr. Pete Horton, of Aberdeen, passed through Caledonia Tuesday en route to Pressley's Mill.

Dr. Molloy, our popular physician, spent a few days in the city of Memphis last week.

Mrs. Cornelia Molloy was making pleasant calls on her friends in Caledonia, Wednesday.

Mrs. Martha Darnell, the mother of our distinguished townsman, Mr. Sam Durnell, is quite sick at the home of Mr. Sam Jernagin, near Flint Hill. Mrs. Darnell went to visit her sister, Mrs. Jernagin, who died on the 19th inst., and was taken sick at the home of the latter. Special prayer was offered in her behalf at Border Springs last Sunday. Her many friends join us in the wish for her speedy recovery.

The manager of the Cumberland Telephone Company, Mr. J. M. Thornburg, Capt. W. T. Mannel and Mr. Foster Hume were in Caledonia Thursday on business.

There is now in the family of Dr. E. M. Jamieson at Caledonia, a small remnant of a sack of lint cotton that was ginned by Uncle Milton Kolb in the fall of 1842. Dr. Jameison's grand father, Sephus Feemster, bought this sack of cotton consisting of 60 or 75 pounds for quilting purposes and only this week Mrs. E. M. Jameson was seen carding butts from this same cotton to pad sofa pillows. It will do the cotton growers association good to learn of cotton being held 63 years. If there is any more cotton in the State as old as this, bring it out.

The justly celebrated Calhoun Rye Whiskey, with an unsullied reputation of 22 years behind every bottle, is undoubtedly entitled to the unstinted praise accorded it by competent judges of quality in whiskey. It is aged in wood, and every bottle guaranteed to be absolutely pure.

Calhoun Rye Whiskey
4 ...FULL... QUARTS $3.20

By Express, All Charges Prepaid.

Do not be misled by the numerous circulars, letters and advertisements of unprincipled dealers wherein they offer you "large quantities" of whiskey at "ridiculously" low prices.

Bear in mind that the government tax is $1.10 per gallon, add to this the cost of bottling, such as bottles, boxes, labels, labor, etc., and in addition to this, express charges, and last, but not least, "the profit" of the irresponsible dealer who offers goods at absurdly low prices, and you will readily see that such goods cannot be "pure and wholesome."

We have made it a specialty to cater to the "consumer" and the "family" trade, furnishing them the best goods at a "fair and reasonable price."

You Take No Risk We guarantee that you do get better goods, as we guarantee the quality of every bottle we ship. If not satisfactory return the goods at our expense, and your money will be refunded by next mail.
